OBJECTIVE

I am a law enthusiast and an 'Assistant Professor' with academic experience of 4 years. I started my academic career with Amity University, Mumbai and then, I joined Alliance University, Bangalore and has dealt with a blend of conventional and unconventional law papers ranging from Constitutional laws, Laws of Contract, Family Laws and Competition Laws in majority. My teaching style is research oriented and based upon accommodating the vital ideas of research analytics with the right awareness of pedagogy and methodology.

Since my law school days, I have a greater exposure in working with corporate sector, firms, trial advocacy to government organizations and now dealing them in class room session has made it puissant.

I want to utilize my qualifications and academic experience to the best of my ability in pursuing the valuable contribution in your organization and will pursue my best effort in proving myself an asset for the organization.
