Overview

Dr. Abdul Kayoom V finished M.Phil in 2012 in the area of Post-colonial studies and PhD in 2018 with specialization on Metaphysical Detective Fiction from Pondicherry University, a popular public university in India. The doctoral study is the first of its kind dealing with the complexity of textuality, epistemology and ontology in the metaphysical detection of crimes in literature. He served University of Calicut (India) from 2009 to 2011 on the completion of the post-graduation. After the completion of the doctoral degree, he continued his teaching profession from 5th August 2018 to 31st March 2021 by serving National Project Implementation Unit (NPIU, a unit of Ministry of Education, Government of India) as Assistant Professor (TEQIP), in connection with its prestigious World Bank funded TEQIP III project. He also served as MIS (Management Information Officer) as part of TEQIP project and has undergone various training programmes at institutes of eminence like NITs and IITs, like IIT Gandhinagar, NIT Kurukshetra, NIT Raipur among others, as part of trainings of facilitating its proper implementation. He has presented research papers in various national and International conferences. There are nine research publications in journals of repute to his credit. Currently, he is serving the department of English Studies, Central University of Jharkhand, a prestigious public university under the Ministry of Higher Education, Government of India.
