Title: Level of Education in Azamgarh City

Supervisor: Dr. Tariq Mahmood Usmani, Assoc. Professor
Dept. of Geography, Aligarh Muslim University

Abstract: Quality of school education up to intermediate level has been studied. Data have been collected from the field survey and government offices for different parameters such as spatial distribution, teacher-student ratio, girl-child enrollment, modern teaching aid and support to economically poor student. Annual results and progress reports show that the private schools performed better than their government counterparts. Data also specify significant increase in number of schools, girl-child enrollment and literacy rate since the last census. Several measures have been suggested to improve the quality of education, particularly in government schools.
